Volume 2018, Issue 7

Hi everyone. Summer has finally arrived so no more talking about the cold weather instead we can start talking about how hot it is.

Our weekend trip to Wildwood for the New Jersey State Elk's Convention was again a great event. Our Marching and Parade Committee, headed by Bob Habel, did an outstanding job of coordinating everything. Janet, Ron and Michelle, along with everyone who brought food, made sure no one went hungry. The special desserts were very popular too. They included munchies, Apple Pie, Jello and Pudding. Of course there were the adult beverages to go along with all the food.

We had 39 members, who either marched or rode in the Parade on Saturday. The Lodge did win two awards. One was for 5th best marching unit in the State, and 3rd place for best float in the district. Thanks to those members who made time to do their part by helping with the float and marching to make the 105 the best. If you missed coming down to Wildwood this year, don't miss next year.

There is always something happening at the Lodge. Check the Newsletter, Facebook or our Website for happenings and times of operation. Regular Lodge membership meeting nights for the summer months are July 18 and August 15. Please make an effort to attend meetings.

My pick for Elk of the month of July is Emily Reeg. Emily is one of our newer members at the Lodge but since joining, she has taken the position of Chaplain of the Lodge, joined multiple committees and is always ready to help with any project at hand. Her creativity and new ideas are invaluable Thank you Emily for all you do.

See ya at the Lodge,

Roger

Thank you for all you do
